

The Soul Center Liability Waiver for The Salt Room

It is up to each individual to take caution to prevent tripping, or falling as there is loose salt that maybe on the walk way. The facility is cleaned between each session so we also ask that you discard towels into the laundry basket that is provided. The salt room will be cleaned between each session to ensure cleanliness and to maintain the relaxing atmosphere of the Salt Room.

Sessions will be 30min and a maximum of three people in the room at a time unless for meditations. Sessions are paid before entering and are non refundable at anytime. Passes are available to purchase and will be kept track of at the main reception. Fees are subject to change without notice but length of sessions will be notified should that change

Cancellations must be at least 24hrs notice, if you have a pass and do not show or cancel less than the allotted time this will be deducted from your pass. Those that do not have a pass and cancel under 24hrs or do not show for scheduled appointment will be charged a $5 cancelation fee should you book again in the future.

Cancellations can be made by Facebook message, email phone or text.

Children under the age of 16 must be accompanied by an adult and will be subject to the session fee for two people.
